

Indian Statistical Institute
Documentation Research and Training Centre

M.S. in Library and Information Science (2017-2019)

First Semester

Paper 2: INFORMATION ORGANIZATION

Date: 13th Nov 2017

Max Marks: 100
Time: 3 hours

Answer any FIVE of the following. All questions carry equal marks.

1. What is the fundamental work involved in the idea plane? Explain with the canons for characteristics.
2. State the concept and need of Rounds and Levels. Discuss with examples the principles for arrangement of facets in various rounds and levels.
3. State and discuss in detail the Cannons for Arrays. Highlight their significance with relevant examples.
4. What is the need and importance of Notation in Library Classification? State notational qualities with special reference to mnemonical notation drawing examples from the CC and UDC.
5. Explain the steps of classifying a document with example using Colon Classification sixth edition.
6. Write Short notes on any two of the following
 - a. Fundamental Categories
 - b. Cannon of Context
 - c. Auxiliaries in UDC

Documentation Research and Training Centre
Indian Statistical Institute, Bangalore - 560059
MS-LIS First Semester - 2017
Semester Examination
Paper 2: Information Organization (Practical)

Max Marks – 40

Date: 13th Nov 2017

Time: 90mins

Part - A

Classify any TWO using DDC (22nd ed)

2*8=16

- 1) Collection of French one act play about social themes.
- 2) Magahi Poetry in 14th century.
- 3) Collection of Oriya poetry on palm leaves in 16th century.

Part - B

Classify any FOUR using CC(6th ed)

4*6=24

- 4) Rider International Classification. (Developed in 1961)
- 5) Harvesting of Jute crop in West-Bengal,
- 6) Difference between Political science and History,
- 7) Mushroom Metabolism.
- 8) References Services in City library.