

Advertisement

Applications are invited for purely temporary post of Project Linked Personnel (1) for a major project on “Information Systems for Knowledge Representation undertaken by Documentation Research and Training Centre under the Project Principal Investigator Dr. M Krishnamurthy, for a period of three years from 2021-2024 funded by the Indian Statistical Institute.

Qualification & Experience:

Candidate must have first Class Masters degree in Computer Science/ B E , B tech in Information Technology and Masters in Library & Information Science (M.L.IS.c) or equivalent degree from a recognized university with consistent good academic record. A good knowledge in the field of ontology and semantic web application to Library and Information is required . Expertise in writing annotation and abstracts will be added advantage. Good Written and oral communication skills. He / she will be required to help collect and organize information sources relevant to the project so as to develop and manage a ontology techniques which will become a digital repository catering to the needs of scholars, researchers and advanced students. This would require knowledge of relevant and quality resources, search tools, and expertise in searching, selecting evaluating and creating entries for each resource like Knowledge Engineering Approach, Knowledge Base, Knowledge Representation, Ontology , Ontologies in Information Systems.

Duration of Appointment: One year (extendable up to 3 years based on performance)

Pay :Consolidated Monthly Pay: 24,000.00 Per Month (Consolidated)

Age : Should not exceed 35 years as on April 2021, with usual relaxation for SC/ST/ and Physically challenged candidates.

Application Procedure:

Interested candidates should send their application along with their latest résumé through email to Dr . M Krishnamurthy, Project Principal investigator, DRTC, Indian Statistical Institute, Bangalore -560059. mkrishna_murthy@hotmail.com; mkrishnamurthy1304@gmail.com

A brief write-up (one para) on your relevant experience and your motivation to apply for this position must be sent with your résumé on or before June 30, 2021

The Institute reserves the right not to appoint anyone in this project in case no suitable candidate is found.

(CRE Raja)

Head, ISI Bangalore